

Queen of the Angels, Queen of the May

In the Catholic Church the month of May is Mary's month. It's the month we honor Blessed Mary as the Mother of Jesus and our Heavenly Mother. If you attended Catholic school, you probably remember taking part in the "May crowning" in the beginning of May—where a wreath of flowers was placed on the head of the statue of Mary as prayers were said. Never forget that the closer we get to the Blessed Mother, the closer we get to Jesus!

In April's Medjugorje message to the world, Our Lady said, "Dear children! I am looking at you and I see that you are lost." So many people are moving away from the Lord at this moment in history. The deceptions of the devil are producing rotten fruit – poisonous fruit. We must assist Our Lady by bearing good fruit in our lives. Fruit that only comes through union with God. Now is the time to surrender everything into the hands of Jesus and Mary, living lives conformed to their Sacred and Immaculate Hearts. We must turn away from the Spirit of the World and be filled up with the things of heaven. Do not be conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may prove what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect (Rom. 12:2). May is the perfect month to begin again in the pursuit of holiness, guided by the gentle hand of our Mother.

The month of May is the "month which the piety of the faithful has especially dedicated to Our Blessed Lady," and it is the occasion for a "moving tribute of faith and love which Catholics in every part of the world pay to the Queen of Heaven. During this month Christians, both in church and in the privacy of the home, offer up to Mary from their hearts an especially fervent and loving homage of prayer and veneration. In this month, too, the benefits of God's mercy come down to us from her throne in greater abundance" (Paul VI: Encyclical on the Month of May, no. 1).

But why was the month of May chosen? Why not April or June?

Historians aren't exactly sure why May was

April 25, 2022 Message to Marija

"Dear children!

"Dear children! I am looking at you and I see that you are lost. That is why I am calling all of you: return to God, return to prayer—and the Holy Spirit will fill you with His love which gives joy to the heart. Hope will grow in you, also for a better future, and you will become joyful witnesses of God's mercy in you and around you.

Thank you for having responded to my call."

Note: These messages are not yet recognized by the Catholic Church as having a supernatural origin.

chosen to honor Mary, but many believe that May being the month when spring is in full bloom has a lot to do with it. May is the height of spring—gardens everywhere are alive with blooming flowers and trees are filling their branches with leaves. This new beginning and new birth in nature reminds us of the life Mary gave to Jesus. Without Mary giving birth to Jesus, all the events that followed: Jesus' life, death, and resurrection wouldn't have happened. So, it's believed that May – when nature is showing signs of life – is the ideal month to honor the woman who gave life to our Savior.

This Christian custom of dedicating the month of May to the Blessed Virgin arose at the end of the 13th century. In this way, the Church was able to Christianize the secular feasts which were to take place at that time. In the 16th century, books appeared and fostered this devotion.

The practice became especially popular among the members of the Jesuit Order – by 1700 it took hold among their students at the Roman College and a bit later it was publicly practiced in the Gesu Church in Rome. From there it spread to the whole Church.

In our observance of the Marian month we should take into account the season of the Liturgical Year which largely corresponds with the fifty days of Easter. Our pious exercises could emphasize Our Lady's participation in the Paschal mystery and in Pentecost with which the Church begins. The pious exercises connected with the month of May can easily highlight the earthly role played by the glorified Queen of Heaven, here and now, in the celebration of the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist.

The following practices which are recommended by the Magisterium are offered as suggestions for honoring Our Lady during Her month. (Excepted from the Directory on Popular Piety and the Liturgy)

The Regina Coeli

The ecclesial community addresses this antiphon to Mary for the Resurrection of her Son. It adverts to, and depends on, the invitation to joy addressed by Gabriel to the Lord's humble servant who was called to become the Mother of the saving Messiah.

The Rosary

Also called the Psalter of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Rosary is one of the most excellent prayers to the Mother of God. Thus, "the Roman Pontiffs have repeatedly exhorted the faithful to the frequent recitation of this biblically inspired prayer which is centered on contemplation of the salvific events of Christ's life, and their close association with the Virgin Mother."

Litanies of the Blessed Virgin Mary

These consist of a long series of invocations to Our Lady, which follow in a uniform rhythm, thereby creating a stream of prayer characterized by insistent praise and supplication.

Consecration and Entrustment to Mary

The Roman Pontiffs have frequently expressed appreciation for the pious practice of "consecration to the Blessed Virgin Mary" and the formulas publicly used by them are well known.

Louis Grignon de Montfort is one of the great masters of the spirituality underlying the act of "consecration to Mary". He "proposed to the faithful consecration to Jesus through Mary, as an effective way of living out their baptismal commitment."

The Brown Scapular and other scapulars

The scapular is an external sign of the filial relationship established between the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother and Queen of Mount Carmel, and the faithful who entrust themselves totally to her protection, who have recourse to her maternal intercession, who are mindful of the primacy of the spiritual life and the need for prayer.

Radio Maria USA celebrates its 22nd birthday on May 25

On May 25, 2000, the first broadcast of Radio Maria on KJMJ 580 AM was made from the small studio on Washington Street in Alexandria, Louisiana. Since that time, Radio Maria has developed into a strong arm of Catholic radio in the US and around the world.

“It’s truly miraculous how much Radio Maria has grown over the years,” said Fr. Dan Reehil, national priest director. “What started out as one small station in Louisiana, has grown to a network of 11 more stations in the US and listeners from all over the world.”

“But the true miracle comes from the loyal listeners who support Radio Maria, year after year, with their generous support. There is honestly no way we would be where we are today without our listeners. Happy birthday Radio Maria and thank you, thank you, thank you, to our listeners. May God bless each and every one of you!”

Radio Maria USA Spring Mariathon to be held May 23-26

Every year, during the month of May, all Radio Maria stations worldwide unite to host local mariathons to support our Lady’s mission.

Please join Radio Maria USA May 23-26 for our annual event, with special programs and giveaways!

A Daily Devotion to Mary during the month of May

Catholic News Agency

It was in Rome, towards the end of the eighteenth century, one fine evening in May. A child of the poor gathered his companions around him and led them to a statue of Mary, before which a lamp was burning, as is the custom in that holy city. There, these fresh young voices sang the Litany of our Lady. The next day, the little group, followed by other children, again gathered at the feet of the Mother of God. Next came their mothers, to join the little assembly. Soon, other groups were formed, and the devotion rapidly became popular. Holy souls, troubled by the disorderly conduct which always increases and becomes graver at the return of the pleasant springtime, saw in these growing practices the hand of God, and they cooperated with the designs of Providence by approving and promoting this new devotion, as a public and solemn act of reparation. The Month of Mary was founded.

"This is the month in which, in the churches and individual homes, the most affectionate and fervent homage of prayers and devotions from the hearts of Christians are raised to Mary. It is also the month in which from his throne descend upon us the most generous and abundant gifts of the Divine Mercy."⁶

In our own times, we Catholics, wanting to be close to her always, offer her special presents in May: pilgrimages, visits to churches dedicated to her, little sacrifices in her honor, periods of study and well-finished work offered up to her, and a more attentive recitation of the rosary.

May 1

Mary: the Mother of God

Let us offer to our Mother today: Brief but frequent prayers of love, such as: "Mother of God, your petitions are most powerful."

May 2

Mary: the Most Perfect Creature

Let us offer to our Mother today: Many glances of affection and many words of love, when we see her image or picture in our home, in the church, or anywhere.

May 3

Mary and the Blessed Trinity

Let us offer to our Mother today: A "Hail Mary" each time the clock strikes another hour.

May 4

Mary's Family: Trinity on Earth

Let us offer to our Mother today: A loving review of her life with Jesus, as we recite the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary.

May 5

Her Immaculate Conception

Let us offer to our Mother today: The renewal of our baptismal vows.

May 6

THE ANNUNCIATION

Mary: The first Tabernacle

Let us offer to our Mother today: The Angelus recited punctually at noon and with great affection.

May 7

Mary: Our model in Ordinary Life

Let us offer to our Mother today: Affectionate details of service and attention to those closest to us.

May 8

Mary: Mother of Christ

Let us offer to our Mother today: Jesus himself, when we receive Him in Holy Communion.

May 9

Mary: Welcoming the shepherds

Let us offer to our Mother today: Small hidden sacrifices, especially those that go against the grain.

May 10

Presenting Jesus in the Temple

Let us offer to our Mother today: A pilgrimage to one of her shrines.

May 11

Mary: Welcoming the Magi

Let us offer to our Mother today: A visit to a poor person to communicate Our Lady's concern for that person.

May 12

Mary: Her flight to Egypt with Joseph and the Child Jesus

Let us offer to our Mother today: A visit to a lonely person to share the joy of trusting in God alone.

May 13

Mary: Her hidden life with Jesus

Let us offer to our Mother today: The effort of doing our ordinary work well, on time, with competence and finesse.

May 14

Mary: Losing and finding the Child Jesus

Let us offer to our Mother today: A good, sincere, sorrowful confession of our sins and failures, in the sacrament of Penance.

May 15

Mary: at Cana

Let us offer to our Mother today: Prompt obedience, when we are called or asked to do some errand or some act of service.

May 16

Mary: At the foot of the Cross

Let us offer to our Mother today: An act of contrition, said many times, asking her to offer our sorrow for our sins to Jesus crucified.

May 17

Mary: The sorrowing Mother

Let us offer to our Mother today: The mortification of keeping quiet about any pain or discomfort, any inconvenience or disappointment, uniting it with her pain as she stood by her crucified Son.

A Prayer for All Mothers on Mother's Day

Loving God, thank you for all the mothers in the world.

Bless them so that they may always give life and nourishment to their children through their firm faith, generous and selfless love, good example and constant concern for their bodily and spiritual health.

*Grant that we, their children, may honor them always with a spirit of profound love, respect and thanksgiving.
Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.*

*Happy Mother's Day
from all of us at Radio Maria!*

• I can't express my appreciation for your radio station. I listen to Radio Maria all the time! When I say that I listen all the time, I am not exaggerating. I listen during the day, while driving, in my kitchen while cooking, at night when I am trying to sleep. I listen to you at 4 a.m. when you say the Divine Mercy prayer and the after the Rosary. I love Father Dan Reehil and his Mother, Francesca Franchine, Father Loya, Christine Rossi, Mary Pyper, Deacon Bill Brennan, Jimmy Seghers, Roy Schoeman, Joe Patch, Meet the Author with Ken Huck, Alyssa Bormes, Learning to Live in God's Divine Will, Fr. Joseph Iannuzzi and many more! Thank you for teaching us about our Catholic religion and sharing our Catholic faith to us listeners! I especially love how you teach us about our beloved saints!

My husband and I teach religion at our parish and we learn so many wonderful things about our faith that we in turn share with our class! I was devastated when Father Loya announced that he would no longer be on Radio Maria, but I love the fact that you continue to play his podcasts. If I won the lottery, I would donate most of the money to your radio station! May God bless you all and your service to the Catholic faith and may you continue to spread the word of God through your radio waves! In Jesus Name much love, -- Gary and Vikki N., Hollidaysburg, PA

• Greetings and thanks for the Lenten Mariathon! Thank you for the Consecration to St. Joseph book. My granddaughter wants it to pray for her daddy, my only son! Mama Mary at work! Thank you for helping me to "seize the moment" and please join me in prayer for both my granddaughter and my son. Prayers and thanksgiving for all of you! -- D.D.

• Thanks to all of the Radio Maria family! -- Nancy D.

• Regards to Fr. Iannuzzi, from Winnipeg, Manitoba Canada. We miss him for 2 years already where he regularly comes for the annual Marian Conference held at Fairmont. But I am so glad I found him on YouTube and lately at Radio Maria. -- D.G. from Canada

• Thanking you all once again for your faithful ministry to Our Lord and His Holy Mother. -- G.L. From Texas
