May 25, 2022 Message to Marija

“Dear children!

I am looking at you and thanking God for each of you, because He permits me to still be with you, to encourage you to holiness. Little children, peace is disturbed and satan wants peacelessness. That is why, may your prayer be even stronger so that every unclean spirit of division and war may be stilled. Be builders of peace and carriers of joy of the Risen One in you and around you, for the good to win in every man. Thank you for having responded to my call.”

Note: These messages are not yet recognized by the Catholic Church as having a supernatural origin.

Am I ready to adjust my life to welcome Jesus?

Reflecting on the Feast of Sts. Joachim and Anne on July 26

By Fr. Dan Reehil
RM National Priest Director

July 26 is the Feast Day of Sts. Joachim and Anne. This is the “feast of grandparents.” It reminds grandparents of their responsibility to establish a tone for generations to come: They must make the traditions alive and offer them as a promise to little children. But the feast has a message for the younger generation as well. It reminds the young that older people’s greater perspective, depth of experience, and appreciation of life’s profound rhythms are all part of a wisdom not to be taken lightly or ignored. This feast day is especially dear to me as I was ordained on this day eight years ago; so it is the anniversary of my priestly ordination.

Many people and images come to mind when we think of Christ’s Incarnation: Joseph and Mary on the road to Bethlehem, the shepherds hurrying to the stable, the magi scanning the night sky for that wondrous star. But there is another set of people who played a key role in Jesus’ birth: his grandparents, Joachim and Anne.

Perhaps there is a good reason why we don’t think about them: Scripture tells us nothing about Mary’s parents! Even their names come from a second-century document that combines legendary material along with details that may well be historical. Still, there is a long tradition that celebrates this holy couple. They were entrusted with the mission of creating a loving, nurturing home environment for the girl who would become the virgin Mother of God.

If we ponder Jesus’ birth with Anne and Joachim in mind, we can learn a lot. Take, for instance, this familiar passage from the Gospel of Matthew, and read it from Joachim and Anne’s point of view: When his mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found with child through the Holy Spirit. (Matthew 1:18)

Were Mary’s parents the first ones to discover that she was “with child”? The Gospels focus on the essentials of the story without filling in the details, so we don’t know how Anne and Joachim reacted to Mary’s pregnancy—or even if they were alive to hear of it. Still, we can imagine various scenarios. Maybe they regretted arranging a good marriage for their daughter. Maybe they were confused at first; this was a once in forever event! Since we honor Joachim and Anne as saints, we can assume that like Joseph, they were guided by the Holy Spirit to the right conclusion and came to support Mary in her courageous yes. But surely this unexpected and miraculous event took some time to understand and adjust to.

The reality of Mary's pregnancy addresses each of us, too. It calls us to ask: "Am I ready to adjust my life to welcome Jesus? Can I let his birth bring me something new, something more than what I expected from God last year—or ten years ago?" As we ponder Joachim and Anne awaiting their Divine grandson, perhaps we will gain new openness to God's surprises.

Anne and Joachim are often invoked as patrons of married couples who struggle with infertility. This is because an ancient manuscript depicts them as having been childless for decades. According to this source, the couple sought God's intervention for a very long time, begging Him together for the gift of a child.

Waiting for God to answer prayer is an experience we can all relate to. I waited eighteen months for the Lord to call me to priesthood after my conversion back to the church. And then I began a very circuitous route on my way to ordination that took twelve years.

I think of my mother praying for decades for her parents to come back to the faith, which they eventually did – in miraculous ways.

In the end, this couple's long, shared journey of faith-filled waiting only added to their joy when Mary was born. According to an old tradition, they presented her in the Temple, filled with thanksgiving at what God had done for them. Since Mary is a gift to us as well, we can rejoice along with them. This passage, from an eighteenth-century sermon by St. John Damascene, captures that joy:

Joachim and Anne, how blessed a couple! All creation is indebted to you. For at your hands, the Creator was offered a gift excelling all other gifts: a chaste mother, who alone was worthy of him. And so, rejoice, Anne, that you were sterile and have not borne children; break forth into shouts, you who have not given birth. Rejoice, Joachim, because from your daughter a child is born for us, a son is given us, whose name is Messenger of great counsel and universal salvation, mighty God. For this child is God.

Novena to St. Anne, July 17 - 25

Although Saint Anne is not mentioned in the Bible, she is the holy mother of Mary and grandmother of Jesus. When we pray the St. Anne Novena, we are asking help from our Blessed Mother's mother!

Saint Anne's feast day is on July 26th, so the St. Anne Novena is traditionally started on July 17th — but you can pray it anytime.

Devotion to St. Anne began early in the history of the Catholic Church. As she was favored by God to become the mother of the holy Virgin Mary, she is often invoked as the Patron of mothers as well as for relationships, among other things.

Day 1

O St. Anne, you are my spiritual grandmother. Please pray for me!

I come to you today knowing that you know what it's like to wait on God to answer your heart's greatest desires.

I come to you today asking that you will ask God to grant my petition the way that He granted yours.

I ask that you pray, St. Anne, to ask Our Lord to have mercy and favor on me.

Please pray for...
(Mention your intentions here).

But most of all, please pray that I may be open to God's will the way that you were, and that I will be able to wait with patience, perseverance in faith and hope, and with absolute trust in the Lord's plan for me. Amen.

Day 2

O St. Anne, you are my spiritual grandmother. Please pray for me!

I come to you today knowing that you waited for decades for God to answer your prayer.

I ask that you pray for me to have greater trust in God's plan while I wait for His answer to my prayer.

I ask that you pray for me to wait with hope as you did, and to wait with greater faith.

Please pray that God will give me the strength to establish the certainty in my mind that He does love me, and that He does have a special plan for me.

Please pray for...
(Mention your intentions here)

But most of all, please pray that I may be open to God's will the way that you were, and that I will be able to wait with patience, perseverance in faith and hope, and with absolute trust in the Lord's plan for me. Amen.

Day 3

O St. Anne, you are my spiritual grandmother. Please pray for me!

I come to you today asking that you pray for me to see God's goodness in my life, just the way that it is.

It is easy for me to forget about the blessings that do exist in my life while I pray for another one.

It is easy for me to forget about the beauty that does exist in my life while I focus on what is lacking.

Instead, I ask you to please pray for me today that I may be present in each moment, and that I may be open to seeing God's goodness, beauty, and loving hand in my day — just as it is.

Please pray that I may be able to live in the present, and not to dwell on the past or the future.

Please pray for...
(Mention your intentions here).

But most of all, please pray that I may be open to God's will the way that you were, and that I will be able to wait with patience, perseverance in faith and hope, and with absolute trust in the Lord's plan for me. Amen.

Day 4

O St. Anne, you are my spiritual grandmother. Please pray for me!

I come to you today asking that you will pray today for my relationship with our Lord.

I realize that there are many times I fail to come to Him.

I know that I should give Him more of my time.

I want to have a better relationship with Him.

Please pray that I will not turn away from God during this time of waiting for my answered prayer. On the contrary, please pray that I will use this time to grow closer to Him; to devote more of my time, more of my heart and more of my mind to Him.

Please pray that I will become better at looking to Him and turning to Him in everything.

Please pray for...
(Mention your intentions here).

But most of all, please pray that I may be open to God's will the way that you were, and that I will be able to wait with patience, perseverance in faith and hope, and with absolute trust in the Lord's plan for me. Amen.

Day 5

O St. Anne, you are my spiritual grandmother. Please pray for me!

I come to you today asking that you will pray that the love in my heart will grow continuously for our Lord.

It is too easy for me to be lured and tempted by the things of this world, and sometimes, even by the things my heart desires most.

I ask that you help me to remember that this world is my ship and not my home, and please pray that I may keep my eyes focused on the Lord and on eternity in Heaven.

Please pray for...
(Mention your intentions here).

But most of all, please pray that I may be open to God's will the way that you were, and that I will be able to wait with patience, perseverance in faith and hope, and with absolute trust in the Lord's plan for me. Amen.

Day 6

O St. Anne, you are my spiritual grandmother. Please pray for me!

I come to you today with my heartache and pain. It hurts right now to not have what I most desire. It hurts to feel as though God has forgotten me in my waiting.

I ask that you pray for me today that God will heal the hurt that exists within me, and that He will use the suffering that I have been enduring, for His greater glory.

St. Anne Novena Continued from page 3

Please help me, St. Anne, to not waste my suffering, but to instead, lay it at the foot of the cross and carry it courageously throughout my days.

Please pray that Jesus will relieve even an ounce of the pain I feel, and that He will accept my suffering, and use it as He wills. Please pray that He will teach me to love through this cross.

Please pray for...
(Mention your intentions here).

But most of all, please pray that I may be open to God's will the way that you were, and that I will be able to wait with patience, perseverance in faith and hope, and with absolute trust in the Lord's plan for me. Amen.

Day 7

O St. Anne, you are my spiritual grandmother. Please pray for me!

I come to you today feeling weighted by the burden of my cross. I ask that you please pray that God will help me carry this cross, and that He will send me friends and family -- a community -- to help me carry it. And in turn, please help me to carry their crosses as well.

Please pray for...
(Mention your intentions here).

But most of all, please pray that I may be open to God's will the way that you were, and that I will be able to wait with patience, perseverance in faith and hope, and with absolute trust in the Lord's plan for me. Amen.

Day 8

O St. Anne, you are my spiritual grandmother. Please pray for me!

I come to you today knowing that I have looked all too often to things and people other than God for my hope and consolation and support.

Please pray that God forgives me for those times. And please pray that I will learn in this waiting to trust in Him alone.

Please help me to remember God's mercy and His love for me, and please help me to pray, "Jesus I trust in You," every single day.

St. Anne, please pray that God alone will be my ultimate source of hope, support and comfort.

Please pray for...
(Mention your intentions here).

But most of all, please pray that I may be open to God's will the way that you were, and that I will be able to wait with patience, perseverance in faith and hope, and with absolute trust in the Lord's plan for me. Amen.

Day 9

O St. Anne, you are my spiritual grandmother. Please pray for me!

I come to you today asking that you pray for me to become more grateful. Too many of my prayers to God are when I come to Him and ask Him for something.

Today, I ask you to help me remember to come back to Him -- always, and to thank Him.

Even when He doesn't answer my prayer in the way that I had hoped. Even when I don't understand His plan. And even when I don't feel very grateful.

I ask that you pray for me, St. Anne, to develop this practice of gratitude to our Lord, and that I may learn to thank Him in every circumstance and situation.

Please pray for...
(Mention your intentions here).

But most of all, please pray that I may be open to God's will the way that you were, and that I will be able to wait with patience, perseverance in faith and hope, and with absolute trust in the Lord's plan for me. Amen.
